A special Town meeting has been called for October 2, 1950, according to the office of the Board of Selectmen.

The meeting has been ordered by the request of Mr. Fred S. Glynn who filed a petition signed by 250 voters requesting the call and submitting as an article, "That the Town of Arlington change its present form of government to that of a Town manager form, fashioned after the Stoneham plan."

The office of the Town clerk has checked the 250 signatures and found that 202 were acceptable, two more than required to request a Town Meeting.

Mr. Frank Nicksay, secretary to the Board of Selectmen, announced that the warrant will be open to receive articles from August 28, until September 5, 1950.

In order to submit an article to the warrant the signatures of 100 registered voters are required.

Anyone who wishes to submit an article may do so by obtaining the 100 necessary names and then filing a copy of the article with the Town Clerk of the Town of Arlington before September 5, 1950.

New Lights On Parkway

Representative Joseph F. McEvoy Jr. has been informed by Chairman William T. Morrissey of the Metropolitan District Commission that the bids have been opened and the contract awarded for the installation of the pedestrian controlled traffic lights on Alewife Brook Parkway at the Broadway end of the Dilbo Field Grandstands near the new Veterans' Housing Units. Representative McEvoy had requested the Metropolitan District Commission to install these lights for the benefit of the residents of the area and to correct a situation whereby it was extremely difficult for pedestrians to cross the street at that point because of the heavy traffic. As they will be pedestrian controlled lights, motor vehicles will not have to stop except when people wish to cross the Parkway.

The Arlington Public Schools will open their fall session on Monday, September eleventh, according to an announcement by the Arlington School department.

The following information for parents and students was released by the department:

Truck Crashes MTA Trolley Car; Trio Injured

Two men remained unidentified for more than four hours Thursday night following a crash between an MTA car and a truck at the corner of Thorndike street and Massachusetts Avenue.

Thirty five passengers of the street car and its operator were shaken up as a result of the collision.

Symmes Hospital reported Frank DiCorce of Roxbury, driver of the truck, was treated for slight injuries and released. However, two other men passengers in the truck could not immediately be identified.

While the baby was breathing the life saving oxygen the firemen removed the depleted oxygen tanks from the ambulance and loaned them two full tanks to be used on the run to Boston.

Harold Tucke, 63 Groton road, Chelmsford, father of the child, said the baby had just been born prematurely at the Lowell Memorial Hospital.

The identification was made after Arlington police notified police of Division Four of Boston of the accident. Boston Police had received a call from the son of John Bellizito who reported his father had not returned home. The son was advised to contact Arlington Police as it was possible his father had been the victim of an accident here.

Hospital authorities reported Bellizito was held for treatment for a fractured skull and his condition was fair.

The accident occurred at 9:30 p. m. as the truck was proceeding out bound from Arlington when it reportedly veered from the traffic lane and smashed head on into the left front side of the street car operated by Angelo Pennala of Boston.

The left front steps were torn from the street car and the front and side of the truck were smashed. The truck was towed to MacManus' garage.

Receive Check From County Rod and Reel To Choose Officers

Joseph F. Purcell, chairman of the Board of Selectmen and John L. Murphy, chairman of the Board of Public Works, at a joint board hearing with the County Commissioners, received a check for $5,250 as the County's share in the reconstruction of Broadway from the center to Bates Road.

It has been reported that the Town appropriated this same amount at the last Town meeting for the reconstruction and that the State Public Works department will match the above sums with a check for $10,500 as their share.

Elections of new officers will take place on Wednesday, September 13, at 7:30 p. m., in the Robbins Memorial Library, Arlington. All present members and those interested in joining this anglers' association are urged to attend.

With regard to its current fishing contest, Mr. Henry T. Wolosinski, President, announced that only a comparatively small number of entries have been made in the "Large Game" and "Pan" Fish categories, although several good-sized carp caught in Spy Pond have been entered for awards in the "Rough Fish" division. The club has therefore voted to extend the contest deadline to October 31.

Recover $1000 In Jewels Stolen Here

WILL YOU VOTE?

"Did you know that you are in politics whether you like it or not?" asks the league of Women Voters. "When you sound off about schools, sales tax, deficits in the budgets, all such talk adds up to public opinion," the League continued.

"Your attitude towards politics and what YOU do, can help make Democracy strong," the women voters said. The League of Women Voters explains that if you get out and vote in the September 19th primary election, as well as in the final election, YOU are MAKING the politics of the next two years and doing something about your gripes rather than wasting your wind."

Another $1000 worth of jewelry reportedly stolen by Carol St. Germain of South Boston in his recent house breaking escapade here, was found in the sewers near his home Wednesday night by Arlington police.

This brought the total loot recovered to nearly $3000, approximately three quarters of that reportedly taken.

The seventeen year old offender was caught by rookie patrolman George Morgan, Thursday, July 20th, after a quarter of a mile running chase through the back streets of Arlington center. Morgan seriously injured his back and leg in the chase when he fell from a six foot wall, in the new center parking space, in pursuit of the fleeing youth.

To Enforce Traffic Laws Here Over Holiday Week-End

"Any person who violates the motor vehicle laws in the Town of Arlington over the forthcoming holiday week-end will be punished to the full extent of the law," said Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock.

Chief Bullock went on to say, "The entire force of the Registry of Motor Vehicles, State Police Metropolitan Police, Boston Police and local police departments throughout the state will be engaged in an enforcement program to regulate and control traffic over the Labor Day holiday period. Particular attention will be directed to the control of unreasonable speed, cutting out of line and passing where the view is obstructed, and recklessness in any form. Any driver found operating a motor vehicle after drinking will be removed from behind the wheel and all violators will be penalized."

"Avoid haste; start early; and proceed carefully."

Many entire families will be using the family car to enjoy this last summer holiday, and many families will be returning from their summer homes or from vacation resorts. Therefore, extra care must be exercised so as not to expose the whole family to high-was tragedy we urge as many as possible to travel back to their homes in daylight hours.

"Avoid haste; start early; and proceed carefully."

New Social Security Act In Effect Soon

Here is what happened to old-age and survivors insurance in the Cambridge area when President Truman signed the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act.

All monthly insurance checks now being paid to the 16,000 social security beneficiaries in the eleven cities and towns administered by the Cambridge Field Office will be raised substantially, beginning with the September checks, according to James T. Phelan, Manager of the local office. Mr. Phelan explained that these automatic increases, for September, are scheduled to reach local beneficiaries during the first week of October. Increases will range from about 50 per cent to about 100 per cent. For example, the average benefit of approximately $26 per month for a retired worker will be increased to about $46. A widow with two children who had been receiving $55 a month will now receive about $110 altogether.

Manager Phelan said that under the old terms of the social security law the 16,000 beneficiaries in this area would have received about $370,000, for the month of September. Under the new increases, total payments for September are estimated to be about $510,000 or an immediate increase of some $140,000 monthly in insurance benefits to this area, comprising Cambridge, Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Burlington, Lexington, Newton, Somerville, Watertown, Winchester, and Woburn.

Under the new law the amount of earnings which a beneficiary may make in a month, and still accept his insurance payment for that month, is raised from $14.99 fits even though they have not been employed long enough to qualify under the former requirements. Mr. Phelan said that this would affect a considerable number of aged persons in this area who had once filed claims for social security benefits but had not at that time been able to qualify. The social security office here has been reviewing records for several weeks to screen as many as possible of these persons and will send letters notifying them that benefits may now be payable if the claim is renewed. Other persons not yet age 65—those now 63 and over—will also only need six quarters of coverage roughly a year and a half of employment in work covered by social security—to be insured upon reaching age 65 and retiring. A sliding scale requires longer employment for those reaching age 65 after 1953, but in no case will a person be required to have more than ten years of employment under social security in order for benefits to be payable.

The new definition of "employee" in the amended law accounts for an additional 350,000 to be covered by social security. This new definition extends Federal insurance to full-time life insurance salesmen, agent-drivers or commission drivers engaged in distributing meat or bakery products, vegetables or fruit products, beverages (other than milk) or laundry or dry cleaning services. Full-time traveling or city salesmen (other than house-to-house salesmen) are included.

Still excepted from social security coverage are farm operators, ministers and members of religious orders, and certain self-employed professional people.

A new type of payment is mothers' insurance benefits. These are monthly payments to a mother who has in her care a child entitled to monthly insurance benefits. Separation or divorce from the wage earner does not prevent the mother's receipt of monthly benefits, provided the wage earner was furnishing the greater part of her support. This changes the former law which did not permit payment to the wife of a retired wage earner until she reached age 65. If she has children under 18, she may now receive benefits when her husband retires, even if she is under 65.

The amount of the benefit paid to dependent parents (in cases where the parent was dependent on a deceased worker and where no widow or child can be entitled to benefits) was raised from half the worker's benefit to three-fourths. The monthly benefit for the first child, in the case of a deceased wage earner, was also raised from half to three-fourths of the worker's benefits.

Since self-employed as well as employed persons are now covered, a new way of collecting part of the taxes was called for. Self-employed persons will report their annual earnings and pay their special social security tax (two and a quarter per cent to start with) when they make their income tax returns at the end of each year.

The law provides that employee and employer will pay 1 and a half per cent until the end of 1964, 3 per cent until the end of 1969, and 3 and a quarter per cent thereafter. Only the first $3,600 of wages in a year will be taxed.

Self-employed people, who are in effect both employee and employer, will pay 2 and a half per cent, through 1953, 3 per cent until the end of 1959, 3-3/4 per cent until the end of 1964, 4 and a half per cent until the end of 1969, and 4-7/8 per cent thereafter.

The new law gives wage credits of $160 per month toward old-age and survivors benefits for military service in World War II. These wages are to be used in computing all monthly benefits payable on the

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir,

I would like very much to correct a statement in the August 17, 1950 edition of your paper contained in an article relative to previous work on the Alewife Brook. This article set forth that previous legislation filed by a Representative from Somerville relative to the Brook "was not favored by the Metropolitan District Commission as it would be simply throwing the dirt up on the sides of the Banks."

In 1945 I filed the original Bill providing for work on the Brook and the Metropolitan District Commission, through its Chief Engineer, appeared before the Committees on Metropolitan Affairs and Ways & Means to explain the necessary work that had to be done and the Commission was in favor of the work. At that time the Metropolitan District Commission was instructed to prepare more complete plans for improving and cleaning up the Brook when more money became available. This bill was passed and the work was done and it improved conditions considerably, although it was realized at the time the relief was temporary. This Bill was the forerunner of the Bill filed in 1949 on which I was a co-signer.

Thanking you for your attention and courtesy in this matter, I remain

Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr.
Representative
25th Middlesex District

Dear Sir,

Recently I had the opportunity on several occasions to watch our House of Representatives in action and I came away with the thought, "So these are the men we have voted into high office". So many of them have little qualification for the job and even less regard for the taxpayer's money. With all to many of them their sole aim seems to be to perpetuate themselves in office at the people's expense.

Arlington is indeed fortunate to have a representative of the high calibre of Hollis M. Gott. A man with a proven record who is sincere, qualified and able. Mr. Gott helped defeat the Socialistic Cash Sickness bill sponsored by the Administration which demanded a compulsory, exclusive state fund (really a payroll tax on every worker and employer in the Commonwealth) offering dubious minimum benefits for accidents and sickness which any worker can buy basis of veterans' wage records after 1949, whether the veteran died in service or after discharge, and regardless of whether pension or compensation is paid by the Veterans Administration.

Included in the social security program for the first time, and under special conditions, are household workers regularly employed in private homes. Household workers, including maids, cooks, laundresses, practical nurses, gardeners, chauffeurs, etc., will receive credit only for their cash wages, and will not be covered by the law at all unless they are employed 24 days or more and their cash wages are over $50 in a calendar quarter. Regular farm workers including household workers in farm homes, will be covered by social security beginning in January.

Inspector Thomas Curran, assigned to the case, reported he and other officers sifted the dirt taken from the sewers by the Boston Sewer department and thereby found many of the watches, necklaces and rings taken in eleven East Arlington housebreaks.

The recent heavy rains probably carried off other heavy jewelry which was supposed to have been in the sewer according to police.

Somerville police reported they had seized another seventeen year old on suspicion of housebreaks in Somerville and Arlington. They found some $2500 worth of jewelry hidden in his cellar furnace. Inspector John Hourihan of Arlington is working on this case in hopes of solving some of the Arlington breaks still not closed.

Local Girl Describes Audience With Pope

The following letter written by Miss Marie Guarente who is one of the New Englanders on the pilgrimage to Rome was submitted to the PRESS this week; Miss Guarente writes;

My Dear Dad:

"So much has happened Dad that I couldn't write it all to you. The pilgrimage has been a real sacrifice because there are people in the group from Austria, Belgium, Germany, Scotland, England, France and the United States."

"I have a beautiful room at the Majestic hotel here in Rome which overlooks the square Venito that is just too lovely for words. We have been subjected to a grind of sight-seeing since we arrived here in the capital. For a matter of fact my eyes are burning right out of there sockets from looking at this and at that. We have been taken to all kinds of gorgeous cathedrals, museums and historic spots. Friends have been coming by at night in a horse and carriage to show me the city. We have not stopped once."

"Yesterday, dad, I had the most thrilling experience of my life, the general audience with the Pope. New England represented 850 of approximately 36,000 people all jammed into the fantastically beautiful St. Peter's Basilica."

"The New England position in the Basilica was the best because it encircled the rail on either side of the Holy Throne where the chair is carried in. I had a place in full view of him on the rail and only about twenty feet away."

"When his Holiness was carried into the Basilica all of the 36,000 folks cheered and yelled, 'Vive il Pope'. His holiness was carried all through the Cathedral and he blessed everyone."

"When the blessings were given the Pope very spryly got off of his chair and ascended the throne where he spoke to all of the different groups in five different languages. When he had finished speaking he quickly came down the stairs from the throne and ran to Archbishop Cushing whom he kissed and hugged. We were all so excited. He talked with the Archbishop for a while and then greeted and kissed Bishop Wright and then all of our Bishops in turn. He then went along the rail to the people."

"He came to me shortly dad, and I kissed the ring. He asked me where I came from and I was so stunned I could hardly speak."

"Today (August 20th) we are privileged to have a special audience with his holiness and tea at his summer residence, the Castle Gondolfo. Everyone is quite thrilled because this is really a most special treat."

"The food is very good and fresh fruits are beautiful and plentiful. I have been eating figs till they come out of my ears. I started eating them in Lisbon which was our first stop. The boat then docked at Palerino for a few hours and we hired a cab and went through the city. It was beautiful at night and we were in time for the great festa of the feast of the assumption. (Ed. note Roman Catholic Holy Day) The whole city was gaily decorated and it was a riot to see us bargain with American money with the Sicilians. We then went to Monreale up in the mountains to visit the Cathedral of Santa Maria the second most beautiful in all of Italy. We then brought casada, pizza and lots of figs. It was quite a sight to see all of the Sicilians at the dock waiting to greet their relatives from America. One thing about all of the cities I have visited so far is that they are all very very clean and America could well take a lesson.

Take good care of yourself and my best to all the folks up there.

Coach A Pessimist: Writer Says Eleven Will Be "Contender"

By FRANK MAHONEY

Familiar words echoed over the green of the Warren A. Pierce Stadium on Tuesday morning when this reporter asked coach Henry Toczykowski, "What are the chances this year?"

Answer: "We are not as strong as last year, couldn't possibly do it again; green team; need a lot of training; look at the schedule; tough teams; all been working longer than we have; haven't got the reserve power you claim we have; three of my best men have been sick this summer—and you have got the nerve to ask me our chances. ....bah!!!!"

So I say familiar words. Last year "Toz" said the same thing and I differed with him all year long and the boys won the state championship. Most Coaches are feeling the same way as "Toz", all screaming about the lack of men, the untrained crew, how fat or how skinny some of them are, but along about the middle of September the stark pessimism changes to a rather complacent optimism, especially if the crew wins the first couple of games.

Toz has a right to holler in some instances but in others he is not too badly off. There are only about forty men out for the team and for a Town this size that's not saying much. It gives a coach a more or less limited view of what he has to choose from. However, only nine of last year's active playing squad are missing from the lineup. This means about thirteen men are back which is a better average than most high schools can boast. Lowell is starting on a practically brand new squad, although quite a few men who were regulars in the second and third platoon are back for the 1950 campaign.

Salisbury, O'Brien and Kennealy have spent two weeks in the hospital for various reasons and Salisbury lost about twenty five pounds. He still looks good, if not better, at his lighter weight and I don't doubt but the weight loss might be an asset rather than a liability.

Only forty men are on the field at the present but if events hold true to course about twenty more should be out the first of the school year.

The one gripe that Toz has that holds water is the fact that Lowell and Waltham have been training for about eight weeks longer than the Arlington squad. This means we should have more spring practice in future years in order to stay in competition.

There is still no word on the secret weapon that the coaches are still trying to enlist, but if they don't nail him shortly I will hazard a guess at the name. He would make a great quarterback.

I still say, "Toz", there will be terrific reserve power on the bench this year and the Arlington High squad will be picked as championship contender.

The new schedule will definitely provide some of the best football that high school followers have seen in many a season. Lowell and Waltham appear to be very strong and Somerville is always a tough game. Quincy has long been noted for being a team to beat but Brookline and Leominster, unless they pull a quickie, should be there usual selves. Medford has veiled itself under shrouds of secrecy and won't let Arlington reporters have a look see as yet and as far as the Melrose game is concerned—anything can happen.

This all adds up to good football with no pushovers and for the first time in years, nine class "A" teams on the roster.

Protest On Playoffs

An official protest of the ruling rendered by the umpires in the last game between the Red Sox and Tigers of the senior AYA league has been filed with Bill Hanlon, President of the league.

The protest, given by Ed Mulcahy, coach of the Red Sox is as follows;

1. The plate umpire waved Martens in. He had no right to do so, if he had not, Martens would have touched 3rd base.

2. Martens was tagged with a dead ball because it had not been returned to the pitcher on the mound.

3. Martens could not be tagged until he touched third base. Umpires said he did not touch the base.

4. Actually when the ball is declared dead because of a ground rule, the runner does not have to touch any base but may advance by the shortest route—even right across the diamond.

The Presidents' office has announced that the umpires have decided they were wrong and are going to request that the game be played over from the point under argument.

There will be a meeting after the holidays to determine whether on not the protest will stand, according to Mr. Hanlon.

The Tigers coach, John Powers, claims that an umpires' decision cannot be disputed and the umpires did give a decision at the time. He also said that there is no rule pertaining to a ball being thrown under the fence and therefore it is up to the umpire to make a ruling on the spot.

It was reported that the seeming indifference of the umpires at the time of the disputed play was displayed because they did not want to create a scene or disturbance on the spot.

I Wonder

I WONDER why the police cars are not washed occasionally??? Noticed one the other day parading up and down the avenue with vulgar words printed in foot high letters on the side....

I WONDER if their is anything to the rumor that there will soon be three bomb shelters built in the Town???

WONDER if it was necessary to hire an outside engineering firm to supervise the proposed street construction??? Understand there are a couple of reputable firms in Town....

I WONDER if the prognostication of fifty years of war with Russia will hold up the production of our new street cars that long???

I WONDER why so many people are being bitten by dogs lately?? Is it the dogs or the people??

I WONDER if it is a joke when storekeepers say there is no shortage of any articles?? Noticed a few items missing from the shelves over the week-end...Hoarders no doubt....

I WONDER when the powers that are going to act in accord with public demand and put two policemen in the cars at night?? Penny wise and Pound foolish is an old adage. Which never worked....

I WONDER how the people of Arlington can hold their heads up when an organization like the Arlington Youth Association is starving for funds....The apathy and downright disregard of the fine work of this supposed publicly supported organization is a disgrace....It has been praised by national crime prevention officials as the greatest combatant of juvenile delinquency...yet it is scorned by the people whom it tries to serve....Next time youngsters are arrested for housebreaking remember it's probably because you could not spare a dollar....

I WONDER if the crooks who stole all of the television sets here recently are enjoying the programs???

Awarded Scholarship In Physical Therapy

Miss Eleanor Beck, 64 Chester Street, Arlington, Massachusetts, has been awarded a scholarship in physical therapy under the nationwide professional training program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Mr. Richard O'Brien, Massachusetts representative for the Foundation announced today.

Miss Beck is one of 117 Massachusetts residents to receive a scholarship since the National Foundation expanded its physical therapy program in 1945 to help combat a critical shortage of qualified personnel in the physical therapy field.

While 1,387 scholarships have been awarded to date through the National Foundation alone, it is estimated that 15,000 physical therapists are needed to meet the ever-increasing demand for their highly skilled professional services. Since the first physical therapy appropriation of $55,000 was made in 1942, the organization has allocated more than $2,000,000 in March of Dimes funds to support the program.

Therefore, the standings of the playoffs now stand at one win for the Sox and one tie game with a game under protest. If this protest were allowed to stand the game would be played over with the score, 4-4, at the end of the sixth. A man would be on third base, with two outs, battery for the Tigers, Higgins and Bertalami.

Softball Teams Now In Playoffs

The Town Softball League is now in the midst of a series of playoff games to determine the Town Champion in the Softball League. In the quarter finals played last week the Knights of Columbus team defeated Mt. Vernon in two straight games; the Bombers defeated Rawson A. C. in a best two out of three series; while the Elks and Downings defeated Kiwanis and American Legion respectively.

The semi-finals began Monday, August 28th, with the Elks playing the Downings and the Knights playing the Bombers in the best two out of three series. On Monday night the Knights beat the Bombers in a very close game 6 to 5; while the Elks easily defeated the Downings by a score 4 to 0. The winners in this semi-final competition this week will play in the finals next week at North Union Street beginning Tuesday evening, September 5th. Games will be played on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at North Street, the winner of this series to be acclaimed the Town Champion.

In the final league standings, Knights of Columbus with a record of 23 wins and 4 defeats captured first place in the National Division; while the Elks with a record of 22 wins and 4 losses headed the American Division. The Knights have been entered in the Metropolitan Boston Softball playoffs in Class A competition, these playoffs to begin September 9, 1950 at Quincy, Mass. The Elks have been entered in Class B competition in these playoffs.

Miss Beck will study at Boston University, Cambridge, one of many schools and institutions throughout the country approved for this type of training by the American Medical Association's Council on Medical Education and Hospitals.

In announcing her award, Mr. O'Brien explained that physical therapists trained under the National Foundation program are not obligated to confine their work to treatment of infantile paralysis exclusively. He pointed out that best protection against the disease, since no one can anticipate where it will strike, is to have trained physical therapy technicians readily available at all hospitals and agencies where polio patients may be treated.

Dept's Notes

by "SPARK"

What appeared to be a five alarm
fire at the central fire headquarters
Tuesday morning fooled many early morning shoppers.

There were lengths of hose stretched all over the streets with an engine hooked up to a hydrant pumping water as fast as it could.

There was no fire however, just the firemen performing the annual feat of checking hose lines. Water is forced through the hose with 200 pounds of pressure to determine if the lines will stand up at an actual fire. If the lines break under this pressure they are scrapped.

This amount of pressure is not generally used at any fire. The average house fire would require only 150 pounds of pressure behind the water. If a factory or major fire got under way or it was necessary to lay any appreciable lengths of hose upwards of 300 pounds of pressure might have to be used.

Every length of hose owned by the department is checked at least once a year in this manner to determine its strength and serviceability.

The department has only had one run since Thursday, this being an oil burner fire Saturday noon in East Arlington. No appreciable damage reported.

To Support Fitzpatrick

Middlesex County Sheriff, Howard W. Fitzpatrick was assured strong support from the personnel of both the Billerica and Cambridge Houses of Correction and the Jail at a recent meeting of prison officers and other employees of these institutions. Sheriff Fitzpatrick, who is a candidate for nomination to that office, was given an enthusiastic ovation indicating the high esteem with which he is regarded by his personnel, according to Attorney Walter E. Henneberry of Newton, Treasurer of the Fitzpatrick Campaign Committee, who was also present at the meeting.

"Many of these employees, officers, engineers and matrons, have spent the greater part of their lives in the service of Middlesex County," added Mr. Henneberry. "They have served faithfully and well." "They know the requirements of good Sheriff and recognize in Sheriff Fitzpatrick a man who is fair-minded in all respects. They admire the manner in which he combines humaneness with firmness in dealing with those unfortunate under his care. They like Sheriff Fitzpatrick and the ideals he stands for. Sheriff Fitzpatrick attained conspicuous success in private business before entering public office. He has proven that he is an outstanding administrator in public affairs, said Mr. Henneberry. "Out of last year's appropriation he turned back over $60,000 to the County Treasury, saving over 10 per cent of his budget, even though many needed improvements were made. Today both institutions, at Cambridge and Billerica, are given an A1 prison rating and morale has never been better."

He will campaign actively for Curtis in the western part of the state.

Stepping up his campaign as the September 19th, primary draws near, Curtis himself is touring the state for a round of speech-making that is taking him to virtually every county in Massachusetts.

Curtis, who lost a leg in a naval aviation crash during World War 1, has been active in the Disabled War Veterans of which organization he has been a State Commander and a National Senior Vice Commander. Besides serving as State Treasurer, his political posts have included four years as City Councilor in Boston and ten years in the State Legislature, both in the House and Senate.

Gath Attacks Civil Service

In his home rallies throughout the week from Newton to Lowell and back-treading to Ashland, Harry Gath, Jr., candidate for Middlesex County Commissioner, has emphasized an acceptance of civil service ratings and standards for county employees which to date has been a disputed and non-accepted principle by the County Commissioners.

Said Mr. Gath, "The tenure of a County Commissioner is entirely dependent upon the will of the voters in Middlesex County. They are the elected representatives to direct and administer County affairs."

"Ranking third in our democratic form of government are Counties. First comes the nation, second the state and then the county governments. Yet, nearly 30,000 saw fit to cast a blank in 1948 for County

Vets Insurance Act Is Defined

The Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act as amended provides in effect that any person who enters or is on active duty with the military or naval forces of the United States, including Coast Guard and all officers of the Public Health Service, may place their commercial life insurance not exceeding $10,000 under the protection of the Act. This means, Mr. Robinson explained, that during their period of active duty and for two years thereafter the United States Government will, if the application is approved, guarantee the payment of their premiums to the insurer so that it will prevent a lapse of the insurance should insured be unable to pay the premiums. As a result, the protection for the dependents is maintained.

Within two years after discharge the insured must pay to the insurance company an amount equal to the premiums guaranteed plus interest. Otherwise it will become a lien against the policy. Failure to pay the premiums will mean that the commercial insurance company will cash surrender the contract and take the cash value thereof and apply it against premiums which should have been paid. If there is still monies due and the insured does not pay the insurance company, the company notifies the United States Government who in turn reimburses the insurance company for the difference due and then establishes a lien against the insured, in the event the insured has any monetary benefits due from the government, the latter will then charge this reimbursement to monies due the insured.

Mr. Robinson emphasized that application for protection under this Act may be made only after entry on active military or naval service.

Vets Education To Close In '51

Veterans planning to go to college under the GI Bill are reminded by William J. Blake, manager of the Boston regional office of the Veterans Administration, that the deadline for beginning their courses is July 25 of next year and, therefore, arrangements for going to school should be made at once.

Manager Blake explained that there are some exceptions to the July 25, 1951 deadline for starting GI Bill training. "Eligible veterans who were discharged from military service after July 25, 1947 are not affected by that deadline. Those veterans have four years after their date of discharge in which to enter school under the GI Bill."

Army Enlistments Are On Increase

Sergeant First Class Edward J. Voigt, station commander, of The Somerville United States Army and United States Air Force recruiting station in Union Square Somerville reports a large increase in the number of voluntary enlistments in the Army and the Air Force from this area. During the month of July 48 men enlisted in the Army and 30 in the Air Force as compared to an average of about 20 men per month during the previous months.

From his experience and observation he believes that the majority of these voluntary enlistments are promoted by Patriotic motive. "It is a gratifying thought," he said, "to know that so many young Americans feel that they would like to do their share in establishing peace in the world and have shown it by enlisting in the armed forces. Certainly the spirit of the Minute Men still survives in Middlesex County."

The Somerville recruiting station is located in the Post Office, Union Square, Somerville and is the re-he said. He added: "Also veterans who have begun courses before the deadline won't be affected nor will those who have been in school but are not attending classes on the deadline date because of summer vacations, or for any other reason beyond their control. However, any veteran who completes or discontinues his training after July 25, 1951 deadline will not be able to start another course. Any veteran who was discharged before July 25, 1947, must have started his current course of training on or before July 25, 1951."

Further information may be obtained from James J. Keefe, Contact Representative in charge of the Veterans Administration Office located in the Post Office Building, in Union Square, Somerville.

Ayer further recommended that certain members of the United Nations receiving American aid should match our dollars with manpower to serve under the U. N. flag

Murphy On Campaign

J. Frank Murphy, Springfield's Democratic aspirant for the office of Lieutenant Governor, has launched what will probably culminate as the most extensive "campaign among the people" in Massachusetts political history.

The 39-year old candidate, who has made a successful pattern of guiding major civic projects, has already been circulating among the Commonwealth citizenry for more than a week, and will continue to do so until primary election time, September 19th, in a solid effort to learn their likes, dislikes and pet peeves concerning current state government.

"I aim, first and foremost, through a survey of the incumbent's record and hearing the people's reactions, to use the office which I am seeking to establish a program centered around good government through state-wide economy," Murphy announced.

Major General Needham

polishing," Daniel Needham, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, said yesterday. General Needham spoke at the Newton Kiwanis Club, and later before the Massachusetts Retail Grocers and Provision Dealers at their outing in Braintree and before the Tyngsboro Chamber of Commerce.

"Digging post holes and filling them up again along the roads of the state; painting white lines on old roads and covering them with new topping; eight painters working curbstones equipped with one pail and three brushes, are not improving public service. The Governor does not explain these things, but leaves it to his Commissioner of Public Works, William F. Callahan, who draps himself in the American flag by saying that 90 percent of the men engaged in these useless jobs are veterans."

"What the commissioner does not explain is that these veterans are being exploited for their votes in November. They are being sold a bill of goods by the Governor through his secretariat, acting as his employment agents. They are being given 30 and 60 day appointments with the sotto-voice assurance that they will get permanent jobs after election. Then they will discover that civil service laws can not be by-passed, and they will be dropped from the State payroll."

"As a war veteran myself, I resent the implication that veterans are goldbricks. Veterans want jobs. They don't want hypocritical promises. They have too much respect for themselves to take money for make-believe work."

"The counting of the state's traffic is an example. The Public Works Department has placed across the state hundreds of automatic counters. Every motorist has seen them; a long small house across the roadway leading to a metal box chained to a post or tree. Twenty feet from most of these counters can be seen six men sitting in an automobile, each with paper covered boards counting the same traffic. Are they checking manually on the automatic counter or is the automatic counter checking on them and to what purpose."

"Nowhere can you find a daily tally of traffic on the roads. Apparently the results of the tallies are destroyed periodically. Nobody at the State House knows who gets them, or what is done with them. They have been there for a year. Whatever they set out to prove has been established countless times over. That waste will show up in tax bills to pinch the owners of small homes and the people who pay rent. They will discover it to their dismay next year. Sooner or later the fabulous irregularities of the Dever administration must be investigated, and the people of the state will be shocked at the result."

Muchnick Urges Attack On Reds

Isadore H. Y. Muchnick Boston attorney and leading Democratic candidate for the office of Attorney General, at his temporary headquarters in the Hotel Continental, met many of the 3,000 delegates attending the Massachusetts State Convention of the American Legion today and advocated "a vigorous investigation and prosecution of subversives, and an all-out attack on hoarders and war profiteers."

"The present indifference to the problem of subversives in Massachusetts is at once incomprehensible and intolerable," Muchnick declared. "This Commonwealth, the home of M. I. T. and the site of many of the nation's most important research facilities, certainly should be in the forefront in the battle against those groups attempting to undermine the security of this country. As Attorney General, I will use the full powers of my office to wage a relentless campaign against these treacherous forces."

Muchnick further emphasized to the Legionnaires the importance of having a "full-time people's attorney" in the office of Attorney General during these troubled times. "As Attorney General, I propose to devote all my energies to the execution of my public trust; the present practice of using this important office to enhance a private law practice must be stopped," he asserted.

Many prominent leaders of the Legion who called at the Muchnick headquarters took occasion to compliment the Boston School Committeeman for his vigorous campaign for the removal of Communists from our educational systems.

After 25th Rep. Seat

Leo B. Mallard of 34 Belknap St., Somerville, Past President of the Board of Aldermen and Veteran, has announced his candidacy for election as Representative from 25th Middlesex District to the General Court of Massachusetts. The 25th District comprises Wards 6 and 7 of Somerville and Precincts 1, 3 and 5 of Arlington.

A resident of Ward Seven, Somerville for the past 22 years, he is married and the father of four children, one a veteran of World War 11, Mallard, himself, a World War 11 veteran, participated in six major battles with the 9th infantry, 2nd Division.

Active in veteran and civic affairs for the past 32 years, he is past commander and treasurer of Dilboy Post, No. 529, V. F. W., past president of the Somerville Allied War Veterans Council; past treasurer of the Somerville Auxiliary Police Asso. and member of the Somerville Lodge of Elks.

An employee of a Boston newspaper, he has been a member of the Boston Typographical Union, No. 13, for 30 years.

Mallard served on the Somerville Board of Aldermen during years 1946, 47, 48, and 49. In 1947 he served as vice-president. In 48, he rose to the presidency, that same year serving as Acting Mayor. As Board President he served one year on the School Committee, (ex-officio).

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Mallard says: "The primary purpose of an elected official should be to accurately reflect the wishes, aims and desires of the people."

"My experience and record of accomplishment as Alderman for four years gives you something tangible to appraise and judge me by, not vague promises and worthless phrases."

"It is fair to assume that a well trained candidate who always represented the citizens honestly, intelligently, and actively will do so in the future. There is no better way to attempt to ascertain what a man will do than to examine his past record."

A grave and minute examination of my record as Alderman for four years will disclose that I frequently jeopardized my political standing by fighting for men and principles which believed to be for the best interest of my district."

"On my record of accomplishment an unswerving devotion to the needs and requirements of my constituents, I base my candidacy for election as one of your Representatives in the 25th Middlesex District."

Leo B. Mallard

Hold Rally For Stearns

Another of a series of county wide "Stearns for Sheriff" rallies was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Demone, Jr., 1166 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington, This group, unique in political circles, averaged in age only about 25 years, the Arlington delegates being William Nelson, 278 Washington Street, and N. Edmond Cotter, 285 Lowell Street, plus the host and hostess.

Dr. Stearns, due to the pressure of previous engagements, was unable to attend the meeting but was represented by James D. Smith of Medford, and the host. The main topic of discussion was "Self Service vs Public Service," and the role of youth in removing this self service from the political scene. The Stearns workers emphasized the tremendous importance of primary voting, pointing out that in the past only 6 per cent of the County's registered voters chose in the primary the candidate who was later elected Sheriff.
